Before You Begin

2022 Adolescent Health and Wellness Application

Louisville Funders Collaborative: Louisville foundations using Blackbaud Grantmaking software have joined together to implement shared applications and reports to help streamline and ease barriers to their grant processes. While the goal of this collaboration is to ensure expanded access and greater equity for grant seekers, it is important to note that each funder has their own guidelines, strategic priorities, timelines, and proposal review criteria. Participating funders may also request additional information at any stage during their application process. Based on limitations of the Blackbaud Grantmaking system, at this time, any interested nonprofit seeking funding must submit their application to their requested foundation(s) separately. However, the commitment is to continue to improve this process, and learn from others to create stronger and more effective partnerships within our community. The following funders are collaborating in this process: C.E. and S. Foundation, Gheens Foundation, James Graham Brown Foundation, Jewish Heritage Fund, Norton Foundation.

Jewish Heritage Fund (JHF) seeks to fund organizations and programs that support our vision of Louisville as a city whose youth are mentally and physically healthy, thriving, and fully engaged in community.

JHF is interested in partnering with nonprofit organizations to ensure adolescents have equitable access to health supports and high-quality, evidence-informed programs. As a funding partner, we support organizations to improve the effectiveness of youth services through capacity-building, research, and evaluation. We are particularly interested in supporting organizations to:

- collaborate to eliminate gaps in services
- actively engage adolescents and their families in decision making (i.e., advisory boards, teen councils, program evaluation)
- evaluate programs, initiatives, and organizational effectiveness
- provide evidence-informed programs that are innovative and culturally relevant
- introduce promising practices through pilot programs

While completing the application please note the following:

- Limit your use of bullets and other formatting
- Periodically save application to prevent any inadvertent loss of data or responses
- Copy and paste from outside documents as needed
- Access saved and submitted requests by visiting the JHF Grant Portal
- Add mail@grantapplication.com to your safe senders list to ensure you receive all system communications
- Please contact gcarter@jewishheritagefund.com with any questions related to the application
