Before You Begin

Before You Begin

2022 Jewish Life Application (Open through March 18th)

JHF provides funding opportunities to reduce barriers for Jewish individuals and their families to engage in Jewish life, and to flourish as individuals and members of a larger community.

This request for funding should align to one or more of JHF's Jewish Life funding priorities:

- Spiritual, cultural, and social programs that grow individuals' Jewish identity and sense of belonging and connection to the Jewish community
- Programs and initiatives that strengthen Jewish organizations
- Programs in the broader community that celebrate and build awareness of Jewish culture, heritage, history, and contributions

While completing the application please note the following:

- Several application questions have word limits. If you have additional information to share, please upload documents in the Other Attachments field at the end of the application.
- Limit your use of bullets and other formatting
- Periodically save application to prevent any inadvertent loss of data or responses
- Copy and paste from outside documents as needed
- Access saved and submitted requests by visiting the JHF Grant Portal
- Add mail@grantapplication.com to your safe senders list to ensure you receive all system communications
- Please contact gcarter@jewishheritagefund.com with any questions related to the application process
