

Before You Begin

Jewish Life Application

Through our Jewish Life funding, JHF wishes to foster an accessible, inclusive and flourishing Jewish community which contributes to the vibrancy and wellbeing of the greater community.

2024 Jewish Life Funding Priorities:

- Engagement opportunities for Jewish community members that meet spiritual, social, and educational needs demonstrated by the 2021-22 Study of Jewish Louisville.
- Initiatives that strengthen Jewish organizations and which foster trust-building and meaningful collaboration.
- Initiatives that inspire goodwill-building and increased cross-cultural understanding between Jewish and other groups in the broader community.
- Experiential and educational Jewish arts and culture opportunities in the broader community, and initiatives which seek to combat antisemitism and other forms of hate in the broader community.

While completing the application please note the following:

- Limit your use of bullets and other formatting
- Periodically save application to prevent any inadvertent loss of data or responses
- Copy and paste from outside documents as needed
- Access saved and submitted requests by visiting the JHF Grant Portal
- Add mail@grantapplication.com to your safe senders list to ensure you receive all system communications
- Please contact garter@jewishheritagefund.com with any questions related to the application process
